Granular garlic

WINNER PLUS Garlic Granules is a dietary supplement, which has an active antibacterial effect and positively affects the gastrointestinal tract. Garlic and its essential oils are known for their antiseptic and antiparasitic attributes and can act preventative against parasites and pests, too. It improves blood circulation and accelerates the circulation of oxygen to reduce the production of lactic acid in muscle tissue. The active ingredients of garlic cleanses the skin and reduces the appearance of eczema. Due to its efficient and repellent feature against fleas, mites and mosquitoes, WINNER PLUS Garlic Granules is a natural help against parasites. It works naturally as well defending against the sandfly (Phlebotominae), which can transmit the infectious disease Leishmaniasis.
